Hey sweetie! I mean Aloha!!
 I'm burning up in the Hawaiian sun. It's amazing here, with long white sand beaches. Not too many hotties though ☺... But my family makes up for that! The waves are fierce, I got thrown, face first, into the sand the first day... Am now scared of the ocean! Tomorrow we're biking down a volcano,

Merry Christmas

and on Monday snowed on a whale watching trip!! Last night I saw authentic Hula Hula dancers, waw! And ate poke Hawaiian style! Say hi to Tim darling! M-Sara

Dear Handwritten Letters,

I have so many questions I would like to ask. You don't really have to provide me answers and most probably I have the answers to my own questions, but I would like to ask them nonetheless because these are questions in my mind sticking around like a broken record. What is it about people's handwriting

Dear Josan P.,

Hello, Josan! One thing I want to say to you, I don't hate you. I don't even don't like you. U'know why? Bec. you're nice to me, to me you're not a pest. And you're sweet. Don't change. I like you the way you are.

that makes it so special? As a matter of fact whether it be handwritten or typed, snail-mailed or handed over, it has that special something that email, online chat, facebook and other media cannot mimic. I guess it's that feeling of endearment as a recipient of an intimate gesture? Is there going to be a time in the future when you'll slowly disappear like some

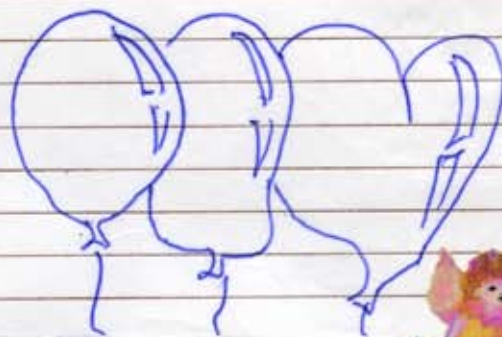

Dear Josan,

Hi! How are you? I hope you're fine. So you are growing taller. You already are taller than Grace. Keep growing. Keep outgrowing Grace, too!

Too bad Mrs. Roy will shuffle us next year. Since we will be in the same section (section 2) next year.

Good Luck with your studies. Study hard so you will have high grades.

Well, I have nothing else to say, aside from this: Always pray to God and thank him for all the blessings he has given to you!

Hi Josan,

How are you? I'm fine. How's your life doing. Are you doing fine with your lovey-dovey crush. Maybe it's Mamura of Sailor Moon.

Hope to be your classmate next year. And hope we will be in 7-2.

You know what. you're funny. Though, you sometimes snub me, (I'm only kidding)

Sometimes. I do hate you 'cause you grew taller than me. You were supposed to be in front of me. Now you're taller. I want to cry.

Bye, anyway. I have nothing to say.

P.S. Good luck to whoever your crush is

Bye,

traditional processes? I fear of your extinction with the speedy progression of technology taking place. I am very fond of you and I'm hoping with all my heart that the world & its modern technologies won't stop your essence from existing. When will be the next time your heart warming presence be amongst the coldness of utility

Dearest friend,
(I know it may be odd, but I decided to make this poem my own letter for you)

A whole year as your friend
But what does it mean?
Do we still keep the love?

It was such a wonderful year
But soon we depart
Like a quick-stick dove.

How I feel it's forever
What we'll be for
But do you still care?

Our friendship is strange
As I fall down our life
I realize as I take a longer stare

We're always best friends
So what? Who cares?
I do! I do! I do!

But what am I here for?
For whom do I live?
For you! For you! For you!

Have a nice vacation
We'll be quite sad
But still I keep your friendship

But I know you'll go sailing
I wish you good luck
Go on and take your first dip!

Sentiments of words. The thoughts that pops up from the mind & heart that flows out from the hands unto paper & shared to another person, there is this indescribable magic about it. I wonder as one of many ordinary people how it's like to be one of those famous personalities who receives insurmountable letters, especially from fans who are willing to go out of their way to express their affections & sentiments toward people they look up to.

Happy day of love valentine.
 love your favorite valentine...

(Hubs?)

(and there are even more)

Things I will deeply miss every hour,
 every day while I am not with you.

What I will miss dearly about Josan Pinon while I am away:

- The way she makes me feel genuinely loved and appreciated by just looking at me with her beautiful brown eyes.
- Her warm, soft body sleeping next to mine and moving when she is dreaming.
- Watching her eat with so much pleasure...
- ... and the way how sad she looks when she eats the last yummy piece on the plate which she saved for herself.
- How absolutely amazing she looks when she dresses up.
- Pressing her button, which always makes us laugh.
- The way she forgives me so quickly when I act like a jerk even if she wants to kill me at first.
- How she struggles against all the mishaps in life and grows stronger and more mature through it. And I am confident and absolutely sure she will succeed in the end.
- How she is covering her mouth with her hand when she giggles.
- How fast she gets drunk and acts cute!
- The way she makes me happy by letting me treat her out.
- Her sensibility.
- How she is trying to coerce me into doing stuff by saying "please?" and making me give in.
- How cute she says "you are cum-tazy" when I go to bed after sunrise.
- The way we goof around and wrestle and try to gross each other out, I will really miss that a lot!

She is such a meat-eater and is so happy when she can eat a lot.
 -How she wins over me by saying "I love you three times!"
 -How I can cheer her up easily by kidding her here or there.
 -How I can cheer her up by saying "I really enjoy even if she gets upset even if she gets upset."
 -Her cute drink that shows when she is making her gorgeous smile.
 -The way she makes me want to come back to see her because I will miss her a lot.
 -How she makes me want to communicate with them a lot.
 -Our little mis-communication on the phone, even if they are arranging when they happen.

I wonder about many things in life.
Right now I can't help wondering about you.
The innate beauty & pains you are capable of offering. The impact you've made in my life & others too.

I await your unexpected arrival in my life.

In light & love,
Josan Piñon
